

NQT

Induction & Appropriate Body

Blackfriars Teaching School is an Appropriate Body for Newly Qualified Teachers (NQTs) in England. We are able to deliver a high quality and flexible package to support your NQTs. All meetings will be held in Staffordshire and will provide your NQTs with the opportunity to network and collaborate with other colleagues.

The following support packages are available:

Support Package 1 NQT Appropriate Body (£200 per NQT)

Blackfriars Teaching School will be the Appropriate Body for your NQT. We will support you with the completion of all documentation for the Appropriate Body. NQTs are able to attend the 'Teachmeets' which will be offered each term, giving them an excellent opportunity to visit other schools and to collaborate and network with other NQTs.

Support Package 2 Additional Support (£350 per NQT)

Blackfriars Teaching School will be the Appropriate Body for your NQT. In addition we will offer one half day's support to the NQT and the Subject Mentor/Professional Tutor and 2 twilight sessions that focus on teaching and learning: 'Leading Learning' and 'Classroom Management Techniques'. There is an open invitation to your NQT to attend the 'Teachmeets' that will be offered each term.

Support Package 3 Fully Inclusive (£550)

Blackfriars Teaching School will be the Appropriate Body for your NQT. In addition we will offer one full day's support to the NQT and the Subject Mentor/Professional Tutor and 4 twilight sessions that focus on teaching and learning: 'Leading Learning' and 'Classroom Management Techniques', 'Subject Specific Development' and 'Planning the RQT Programme'. Once again there is an open invitation for your NQT to attend the 'Teachmeets' that will be offered each term.
